

Fellowship in France for Architects

Since 1990, the American Architectural Foundation and The Friends of Vieilles Françaises, Inc. have sponsored the Richard Morris Hunt Fellowship for French and American architects who are pursuing a career in historic preservation. In 2001, an American architect will travel to France to spend 6 months studying preservation practice related to the documentation, protection, and enhancement of French heritage, culture, environment, and resources. Candidates must be registered architects, speak French, and be able to spend 6 months in France. The stipend is $15,000. The deadline for submissions is September 30, 2000. For further information, candidates should contact Mary Felber at AAF at <mfelber@aia.org> or by phone at (202) 626-7511.